HAPPY LABOR DAY

BY: JACK WATSON

The Beautification Projects at Peace Lake are now complete. The well was dug in July, the irrigation installed in August and the two old driveways were removed and new sod put down. As you can see from the picture above, the picnic area is looking great! Jerri has been busy planting and donating a lot of foliage and it looks fabulous. A large thank you to, Becky Conrad, who has been my eyes and ears and the driving force to get all these projects completed this summer.

While the Snowbirds were back home for the Summer months, the Ixora's exploded with beautiful color for the year round residents to enjoy.

KNIT AND CROCHET CLUB

By: Nancy Lawrence

We continue to meet every Wednesday afternoon from 2:00 to 4:00 pm in the Activity Building. Bring any projects you are working on or share a project you have done with the group. All are welcome.

PHONE BOOK CHANGES

Please add the following to the 2012-2013 phone directory:

ESTERS, Joshua & Laura
239-849-8477/1-239-405-0419

Please submit any phone number changes to the office. This can be done by calling the office at 239-543-1155 to request a directory authorization form or if you have already filled out the form, by verbally giving your new number to the office. The office will be starting to work on the 2014 FP Resident Directory, so don't hesitate if you have a phone number change.

NEWSLETTER ARTICLES

By: Judy Watson

All articles and photos should be sent to me at fpnews2013@gmail.com by the 13th of the month. Since the addition of advertising in the news letter has made it a very large file, we will no longer be able to send it out to individuals as an email. Please go to www.forestparkonline.com and look at the "News" tab to view the newsletter in full color.

LAWN MOWING HOURS - 7 AM TO 11 PM JUNE 1 THROUGH AUGUST 31ST AND 8 AM TO 11 PM SEPTEMBER 1ST THROUGH MAY 31ST.

William & Kelly Leonard, 33 Shrub Lane South

FAREWELL DEAR FRIENDS

The following dear friends have passed away and their names were not noted in previous newsletters. They will be greatly missed.

Geraldine Murphy

If you know of others, please send me an email at fpnews2013@gmail.com or call the Forest Park office so we can list their names in the next newsletter.

LEE COUNTY LABOR DAY FAMILY FESTIVAL AND REDNECK GAMES

For the second year, the North Fort Myers Chamber Of Commerce will be hosting the Lee County Labor Day Family Festival and Redneck Games. This year, the event will be held here in North Fort Myers at the North Fort Myers Drive In and Flea Market on Monday, Labor Day, September 2nd.

As a North Fort Myers Chamber Member, we are offering you the first opportunity to join us to promote your business as an exhibitor. Last year, the first year for this event, we estimated that we had over 2,500 attendees. This year, we are doing everything we can to increase that number, and because it is here in North Fort Myers, we expect an amazing day. It will be very beneficial to everyone to have your business there to support the event and to support your business! There is great power in meeting your potential new customers face to face, and we offer you that opportunity.

PLUS, we even have special pricing just for you!

Please take a minute to review the information at www.EventHobo.com/RedNeckGames. The event information is there, and the exhibitor information and application are at the bottom of the event listing. Help us help you help your business while we all have some fun at the 2013 Lee County Labor Day Family Festival and Redneck Games, where good business and good natured foolishness go together!

WIFI SYSTEM

By: Doug Ford

While monitoring the FPPOA wifi system I have noticed VERY high traffic volume this month. This volume during the summer month exceeded the high for the winter month. This is probably caused by down loading movies and viewing the WEB cam. This also can happen when people watch security cameras remotely for an extended period of time. I don't have the tools to remotely analyze which is causing this overload. The FPPOA wifi system wasn't designed for this extra activity. In all fairness to the other users please don't do this.

We had several outages caused by our provider ( Fair Point) which Jim Schleter handled. Have a good summer.

BINGO

By: Anne Domingos

Please joins us on Tuesdays at 6:45pm for 7:00pm Bingo in the clubhouse each week. Cards are $.50 with a minimum purchase of four cards. Night Owl cards are $.25.

BID EUCHRE

By: Madaline Preston

We have Bid Euchre every Wednesday & Saturday at 6:30pm in the Clubhouse unless there is another activity going on in there. We then play in the Activity Building. We have several new players and would like to have many more join in on the fun.

PINE TREE KNOTS QUILT CLUB

By: Kay Westall

We continue to meet each Thursday morning from 9:00am to 11:00am each week. We call ourselves the leftovers until the snowbirds come back for the fall and winter season. Come down and meet us and see all the fun we have while quilting. We're going to hold another Chinese Auction in March, 2014. This will be combined with the Art Show and the Knit & Crochet Club. Watch for more information to come in the fall newsletters.

THE 10 MOST EASILY STOLEN ATM CARD PIN'S

Submitted By: Sherrill Wright

Written By: Eric Pfeiffer, Yahoo! News Reporter

Pin numbers with less significance are safer than popular numbers, according to a study (Reuters)
How safe are your debit and credit cards?

Identity theft and fraud affect millions of Americans every year. And depending on how much thought you put into your personalized PIN, you could be at a greater risk than you realized.

So what constitutes a safe PIN number? A new study from Data Genetics lists the top 10 most-used PINs. And because they are the most commonly used PIN numbers, they are by default the least safe PINs.

According to Forbes, the United States and Mexico are home to the greatest number of credit and debit card thefts around the globe. Forty-two percent of Americans say they have suffered from some form of card fraud, a study from Aite Group and ACI Worldwide shows.

The Department of Justice says that about 10 percent of all Americans suffer from credit card fraud each year and another 7 percent have their debit cards hacked or stolen. More than $5.5 billion in theft is attributed to credit card fraud each year.

The Data Genetics study says that credit and debit card thieves are able to successfully guess more than 25 percent of stolen card PINs within 20 attempts.

And no surprise: the worst PINs are those that are overly simple or sequenced, i.e. "1234."

The best PIN numbers are those "with no special significance." And in the case of the study, Data Genetics said the least used PIN is "8068."

The 10 most-used PINs:

1. 1234
2. 1111
3. 0000
4. 1212
5. 7777
6. 1004
7. 2000
8. 4444
9. 2222

EMAIL ADDRESSES FOR FOREST PARK NOTIFICATIONS

By: Mary Diaz (FP Office)

The Forest Park Office sends occasional communications from the office to the Forest Park residents. If you would like to add your email address to our database to receive notifications, announcements, etc., please call the office or send an email indicating that you would like to be added to our database.

ALUMINUM CAN RE-CYCLE

By: Mary Beth Schleter

Please remember to put your washed and dried out aluminum cans in a bag and place UNDER YOUR MAILBOX Monday evening for early Tuesday morning pick up. Make sure cans are rinsed and clean and DRY. Please place away from trash cans/bags. DO NOT place plastic, glass or metal cans in the bag. Those go in the blue tote bins. Money collected for can recycle helps pay some of the costs of Social Club activities. So, it benefits all residents of Forest Park.

GREEN TREE STICKER

There is a little green tree sticker available in the office that goes on the back window of your car. All residents with automobiles should have this highly visible authorization to be in the Park. This will help the safety patrol on their nightly rounds. If you are a temporary resident and don't want any stickers on your window, then scotch tape it there while you are here.

BLUE BARREL RE-CYCLE

The blue barrel is used for all other types of re-cycling such as paper, metal, plastic, etc. This is a separate program from our regular trash that is picked up on Tuesdays and Fridays. The re-cycle truck comes on Wednesdays.

FOREST PARK CALENDAR

Gail Ford has agreed to handle the updates to the calendar. View the calendar anytime and see the most current information at the website www.forestparkonline.com. This also allows you to view it in various formats i.e. weekly, monthly, etc. Please contact Gail for calendar changes. gailford39@gmail.com or 731-2028.

F.P.P.O.A. BOARD NEWS
DELORES HOLMES IS NEW CHAIRPERSON
OF THE
NOMINATING COMMITTEE

By: Bob Lang, Secretary

Delores Holmes has graciously offered to serve as our chairperson of the Nominating Committee replacing Bob Howe. The decision for this temporary appointment was mine & Delores'. I believe that she will leave her name in nomination for our President's appointment at the October, 2013 General Membership meeting. We hope that the current committee members will offer to continue their service. They are: LoRita Hettich, Betty Hult, Monica Small & Kay Westall. (Monica is recovering from a tough surgery & LoRita & Kay have been through their medical troubles also.) Our thoughts are with them all

This committee is primarily responsible for coordinating the nomination and General Election activities from the October General Membership meeting through the announcement of results following the January election. It is comprised of non-FPPOA Board members to eliminate any involvement or suggestion of impropriety by the Board. Additionally, we have employed their service for check-in at our meetings, determining a quorum, and the tabulation of any voting as necessary.

They do not determine whether a member is in good standing at the time of check-in. This is done by the Office 2 days prior to the meeting & the report that is given to the volunteers is the "bible" that they must follow at check-in. If you receive notice that you need to get your account in order, please do so at the earliest opportunity. Sometime, late this fall we are expecting 2 important votes prior to the General Election in January. They are the approval of the 2014 budget and the decision of location for the Putt-Putt course (if necessary). No further information is available at this time.

A LIFE WITHOUT LEFT TURNS

This is a wonderful piece by Michael Gartner, editor of newspapers large and small and president of NBC News. In 1997 he won the Pulitzer Prize for editorial writing. It is well worth reading. A few good chuckles are guaranteed.

Submitted By: Keith Goudy

My father never drove a car.
Well, that's not quite right.

I should say I never saw him drive a car. He quit driving in 1927, when he was 25 years old, and the last car he drove was a 1926 Whippet.

"In those days," he told me when he was in his 90s, "to drive a car you had to do things with your hands, and do things with your feet, and look every which way, and I decided you could walk through life and enjoy it or drive through life and miss it."

At which point my mother, a sometimes salty Irishwoman, chimed in:

"Oh, bull——!" she said. "He hit a horse."

"Well," my father said, "there was that, too."

So my brother and I grew up in a household without a car. The neighbors all had cars — the Kollingses next door had a green 1941 Dodge, the VanLaninghams across the street a gray 1936 Plymouth, the Hopsons two doors down a black 1941 Ford — but we had none. My father, a newspaperman in Des Moines, would take the streetcar to work and, often as not, walk the 3 miles home. If he took the streetcar home, my mother and brother and I would walk the three blocks to the streetcar stop, meet him and walk home together.

Our 1950 Chevy

My brother, David, was born in 1935, and I was born in 1938, and sometimes, at dinner, we'd ask how come all the neighbors had cars but we had none. "No one in the family drives," my mother would explain, and that was that. But, sometimes, my father would say, "But as soon as one of you boys turns 16, we'll get one."

It was as if he wasn't sure which one of us would turn 16 first.

But, sure enough, my brother turned 16 before I did, so in 1951 my parents bought a used 1950 Chevrolet from a friend who ran the parts department at a Chevy dealership downtown. It was a four-door, white model, stick shift, fender skirts, loaded with everything, and, since my parents didn't drive, it more or less became my brother's car.

Having a car but not being able to drive didn't bother my father, but it didn't make sense to my mother. So in 1952, when she was 43 years old, she asked a friend to teach her to drive. She learned in a nearby cemetery, the place where I learned to drive the following year and where, a generation later, I took my two sons to practice driving. The cemetery probably was my father's idea. "Who can your mother hurt in the cemetery?" I remember him saying once.

For the next 45 years or so, until she was 90, my mother was the driver in the family. Neither she nor my father had any sense of direction, but he loaded up on maps — though they seldom left the city limits — and appointed himself navigator. It seemed to work.

The ritual walk to church

Still, they both continued to walk a lot. My mother was a devout Catholic, and my father an equally devout agnostic, an arrangement that didn't seem to bother either of them through their 75 years of marriage. (Yes, 75 years, and they were deeply in love the entire time.) He retired when he was 70, and nearly every morning for the next 20 years or so, he would walk with her the mile to St. Augustin's Church. She would walk down and sit in the front pew, and he would wait in the back until he saw which of the parish's two priests was on duty that morning. If it was the pastor, my father then would go out and take a 2-mile walk, meeting my mother at the end of the service and walking her home. If it was the assistant pastor, he'd take just a 1-mile walk and then head back to the church.

He called the priests "Father Fast" and "Father Slow."

After he retired, my father almost always accompanied my mother whenever she drove anywhere, even if he had no reason to go along. If she were going to the beauty parlor, he'd sit in the car and read, or go take a stroll or, if it was summer, have her keep the engine running so he could listen to the Cubs game on the radio. (In the evening, then, when I'd stop by, he'd explain: "The Cubs lost again. The millionaire on second base made a bad throw to the millionaire on first base, so the multimillionaire on third base scored.") If she were going to the grocery store, he would go along to carry the bags out — and to make sure she loaded up on ice cream.

As I said, he was always the navigator, and once, when he was 95 and she was 88 and still driving, he said to me, "Do you want to know the secret of a long life?" "I guess so," I said, knowing it probably would be something bizarre.

"No left turns," he said.

"What?" I asked.

"No left turns," he repeated. "Several years ago, your mother and I read an article that said most accidents that old people are in happen when they turn left in front of oncoming traffic. As you get older, your eyesight worsens, and you can lose your depth perception, it said. So your mother and I decided never again to make a left turn."

"What?" I said again. "No left turns," he said. "Think about it. Three rights are the same as a left, and that's a lot safer. So we always make three rights."

"You're kidding!" I said, and I turned to my mother for support. "No," she said, "your father is right. We make three rights. It works."

But then she added: "Except when your father loses count."

I was driving at the time, and I almost drove off the road as I started laughing. "Loses count?" I asked. "Yes," my father admitted, "that sometimes happens. But it's not a problem. You just make seven rights, and you're okay again."

I couldn't resist. "Do you ever go for 11?" I asked.

"No," he said. "If we miss it at seven, we just come home and call it a bad day. Besides, nothing in life is so important it can't be put off another day or another week."

My mother was never in an accident, but one evening she handed me her car keys and said she had decided to quit driving. That was in 1999, when she was 90. She lived four more years, until 2003. My father died the next year, at 102. They both died in the bungalow they had moved into in 1937 and bought a few years later for $3,000. (Sixty years later, my brother and I paid $8,000 to have a shower put in the tiny bathroom — the house had never had one. My father would have died then and there if he knew the shower cost nearly three times what he paid for the house.) He continued to walk daily — he had me get him a treadmill when he was 101 because he was afraid he'd fall on the icy sidewalks but wanted to keep exercising — and he was of sound mind and sound body until the moment he died.

A happy life

One September afternoon in 2004, he and my son went with me when I had to give a talk in a neighboring town, and it was clear to all three of us that he was wearing out, though we had the usual wide-ranging conversation about politics and newspapers and things in the news. A few weeks earlier, he had told my son, "You know, Mike, the first hundred years are a lot easier than the second hundred." At one point in our drive that Saturday, he said, "You know, I'm probably not going to live much longer." "You're probably right," I said. "Why would you say that?" he countered, somewhat irritated. "Because you're 102 years old," I said. "Yes," he said, "you're right." He stayed in bed all the next day. That night, I suggested to my son and daughter that we sit up with him through the night. He appreciated it, he said, though at one point, apparently seeing us look gloomy, he said: "I would like to make an announcement. No one in this room is dead yet." An hour or so later, he spoke his last words:

"I want you to know," he said, clearly and lucidly, "that I am in no pain. I am very comfortable. And I have had as happy a life as anyone on this earth could ever have."

A short time later, he died.

I miss him a lot, and I think about him a lot. I've wondered now and then how it was that my family and I were so lucky that he lived so long.

I can't figure out if it was because he walked through life.

Or because he quit taking left turns.

Life is too short to wake up with regrets. So love the people who treat you right. Forget about the one's who don't. Believe everything happens for a reason. If you get a chance, take it & if it changes your life, let it. Nobody said life would be easy, they just promised it would most likely be worth it."
